What makes a great house party? Just say "basket"...

REDS AND WHITES

Plan on inviting the entire village? Get a few baskets of "Dinner for 8" (each serves about eight thirsty drinkers; $530). The hamper includes Champagne Henriot Brut Souverain, Château de Beaucastel Côtes-du-Rhône Blanc, Château D'Arche Haut-Médoc, Fattoria La Fiorita Brunello di Montalcino and Alois Kracher No.5 Scheurebe ZDS 2002. For a pack of three, choose the Barone Ricasoli ($233), or the slightly pricier Bouchard Père et Fils ($275) hamper.

Alternatively, treat your VIPs to Cloudy Bay Sauvignon Blanc 2009 ($54-$56), the latest vintage from the New Zealand's pre-eminent Sauvignon Blanc producer. Leading wine stores.

COGNAC

When dad is in the house, it's time to bring out the hard stuff. The limited-edition Hennessy Iridescence ($410-$450) is bottled in a jewelled decanter – the bottle's iconic grape bunches are made with 82 crystallised Swarovski Elements stones – and presented in a gift box with gunmetal grey metallic glints. Only 78 sets available in Singapore; call 6838-9826.

CHAMPAGNE AND CAVA

A party is never complete without bubbly. The Champagne Henriot ($150) gift set comes with two 375ml bottles of Brut Souverain and Blanc Souverain in a specially designed wooden box. For Spanish cava, there's the six-in-a-basket Parés Baltà Cava Brut NV ($282), or a bottle each of Parés Baltà Cava Brut NV and Cava Brut Nature NV ($160). Moët & Chandon fans will love its limited-edition festive sets. All prices before GST; leading wine stores.

Veuve Clicquot, another frontrunner in bubbly celebrations, has also designed its own recyclable Festive Designbox Set ($125) comprising a 75cl bottle of Brut Yellow Label and two Clicquot trendy flutes. Only 240 sets available in Singapore; leading wine stores.
